

Confirm Induction Program Partners

Key partners in an effective agricultural education induction program include the entry-level teachers (ELTs), state-level education department agricultural education specialist(s), NAAE-affiliate officers and/or professional development coordinator, agricultural education teacher educators, funding organization, and school administrators of the ELTs.